COURTESY ANNOUNCEMENTS

The heavenly hosts lifting us up, Sometimes the earthly reality of celebrating the Holy Eucharist can be overwhelmingly clear when, for instance, babies are crying or someone becomes ill or a musical note is missed. We have constant reminders that we celebrate Mass among real people and in real time. Yet, at the same time, we are challenged to look beyond the trappings of earth and enter more deeply into the Mystery of God. Whenever we begin the Eucharistic Prayer, lifting up our hearts+to give God the thanks that is right and just,+ we participate in the praise of the angels in heaven singing, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.+ We are invited to cast aside the worries and distractions of the earth for the glory and joy of heaven. In the celebration of the Eucharist, we are reminded time and time again that we are no longer merely on earth, but we have entered into the mystery of heaven! The Dialogue that prefaces the Eucharistic Prayer dates back to Saint Hippolytus and his writing, The Apostolic Tradition, from the third century. Parts of it are found in the writings of Saint Cyprian in the fourth century and the entire dialogue is handed down in the late fourth century work Apostolic Constitutions. Together with the Sanctus, when we sing this ancient chant to the thrice-Holy God, we are taking onto our lips words and prayers that have formed the hearts of Christians for centuries, transporting them from the limitations of this earth to the eternal banquet of heaven with all the angels and saints.

MARCH FOR LIFE, WASHINGTON, D.C.: All St. Jude and Sacred Heart parishioners are invited to join St. Jude's youth group on a one-day bus trip to Washington, D.C., on January 23, 2012, to participate in the March for Life. We will charter a bus and leave from St. Jude bright and early in the morning. (We hope to have a pick-up and drop off in Lewistown for Sacred Heart parishioners.) We will stop for breakfast on the way and arrive in D.C. with enough time to make a pilgrimage to the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. If you have never toured this magnificent basilica, you do not want to miss this opportunity. We will return home around 9 P.M. The cost will be approximately $45 per person, plus meals. If we cannot fill a bus, the cost may be a few dollars more. Advanced planning is necessary for a trip of this nature, so if you are interested in going to D.C. to promote the pro-life cause on the anniversary of Roe v. Wade, please add your name to the sign-up sheet located in the usual place in the social hall. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Thome, 694-3607.

"For those who cannot make the Washington March there will be a Lewistown Pro Life March to be held on Sunday, January 22, 2012 at 1pm We will march from Sacred Heart of Jesus Church's steps to the old Court House on Market St."
